Millennium Hotels and Resorts signs on as a Gold Level Partner of IGLTA, Launches LGBT microsite

Unique value adds for the gay and lesbian travelers every day

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (August 26, 2010) – Millennium Hotels and Resorts of North America announces a dedicated partnership to IGLTA and the LGBT community through exclusive rates and added travel values.

"We are proud to welcome LGBT travelers in any of our 14 North America hotels," comments Jon Hodges, Account Director for Millennium Hotels and Resorts. "We have developed a unique landing page that the LGBT community can explore for everyday savings (www.millenniumhotels.com/pride). We plan to be more visible in serving the community. Several of our hotels have been chosen as host hotels for various Pride events."

"Developing partnerships with global corporations like Millennium Hotels is a key part of IGLTA's continued worldwide growth," IGLTA President/CEO John Tanzella says. "We appreciate the extra efforts they're making to create LGBT-specific marketing and special offers, beginning with their North American properties."

IGLTA, which has staff and representatives in 15 countries, is the leading global organization dedicated to connecting businesses in the LGBT tourism industry. The association spans 80+ countries and consists of accommodations, airlines, tour operators, travel agents, destinations, media and other key players in the tourism industry.
