

For Immediate Release

Media Contact: LoAnn Halden
Office: +1.954.630.1637
loann@iglta.org

Registration Open for Fort Lauderdale: Unleashed

IGLTA's annual global convention site goes live for 2011 gay travel conference

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (September 9, 2010) – Registration is officially open for the International Gay and Lesbian Travel Association's 28th annual global convention, Fort Lauderdale: Unleashed. Set for 10-15 May, 2011 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida (just 45 minutes north of Miami), it's expected to be the largest IGLTA event to date. Visit the convention website now at www.igltaconvention.org.

The convention education programming, "Unleashed 2.0," will spotlight LGBT travel technology to serve as the cornerstone of future business development. Sessions will cater to all experience levels in social media, internet marketing and new travel technology trends to help travel businesses reach consumers in a more effective way.

For a high-res version of the Fort Lauderdale: Unleashed logo, go to <http://www.iglta.org/convention/fil/images/logohi.jpg>

About IGLTA

IGLTA, which has staff and representatives in 15 countries, is the leading global organization dedicated to connecting businesses in the LGBT tourism industry. The association's membership spans 83 countries and consists of accommodations, airlines, tour operators, travel agents, destinations, media and other key players in the tourism industry. For more on IGLTA, please go to www.lgbt.travel or visit our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/IGLTA.